

Help us care for the Garden

Upon entering a Japanese garden, the hope is to realize a sense of peace, harmony, and tranquility. Stroll around, slow down, and let your senses guide you into another world.

Please help us provide an exceptional experience for everyone.

Stay on approved paths. Do not walk on moss or step into raked sand garden.

Silence your cell phone.

No food or beverages, aside from water.

No smoking, including vaping.

No pets, only trained service animals.

Do not touch or attempt to feed the koi.

No paints, inks, or other staining pigments.

Portrait photography is not allowed.

Portland Japanese Garden is an independent nonprofit 501(c)3 organization that receives no state or local tax funding — support from individuals, corporations, and foundations makes our work possible.

Visitor Guide

Portland Japanese Garden is a nonprofit organization founded in 1963 as a place for cross-cultural understanding following World War II. A hallmark in the city of Portland and the state of Oregon, the Garden was founded on the ideals of peace and mutual understanding between peoples and cultures. Portland Japanese Garden is considered the most authentic Japanese garden outside of Japan and among the foremost Japanese cultural organizations in the world.
